MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

Harry:

The attached White House material relating to a National Security Decision Directive on leaks was thoroughly reviewed and studied in the latter part of 1982, both by the Office of Security and SECOM. As the bottom line, this looks like a good Directive, and we would have no grounds for opposing it.

SUBJECT: NSDD on Leaks

Jim:

On 17 August 1982, the attached NSDD was placed in the Darman system for comment and then presentation to the President. The directive resulted from an intensive interagency effort following several flagrant violations of law by disclosure of classified information similar to last week's disclosure [redacted]

[redacted] The delay in issuing this directive has led to questioning by the involved agencies. I believe we should move it.
